Follow the red line, answer the questions, then return this form to Tūranga or the Tiny Toy Shop at The Arts Centre (upstairs above Frances Nation). You will get a treat and be in our prize draw.

Go to the artwork number and answer the questions:

- 1 How many people are in this artwork?
- 2 How many objects can you see hidden on the island?
- 3 What sort of object do you think is buried in the earth?
- 4 What colour is the longest tuna (eel)?
- 5 How many domes are there?
- 6 What colour is the model's handbag?

Colour in the stars to show how much you enjoyed the art.

From one star (not great) to five stars (totally awesome) - What's your rating?

Print your contact details clearly so we can get in touch if you win:

SCAPE Public Art has been installing cool, free-to-view art in Ōtautahi Christchurch for 25 years. Our education programme involves fun, practical art at Tūranga or at school. We enable school-age artists to exhibit their own public art. Find out more at www.scapepublicart.org.nz or scan the QR code.
